

Sport Consumer Motivation

SPM381 CONSUMER BEHAVIOR IN SPORT

Why do you watch NBA games?

WATCH THIS CLIP

Mini documentary

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=c1KTmV3aaEk&t=76s>

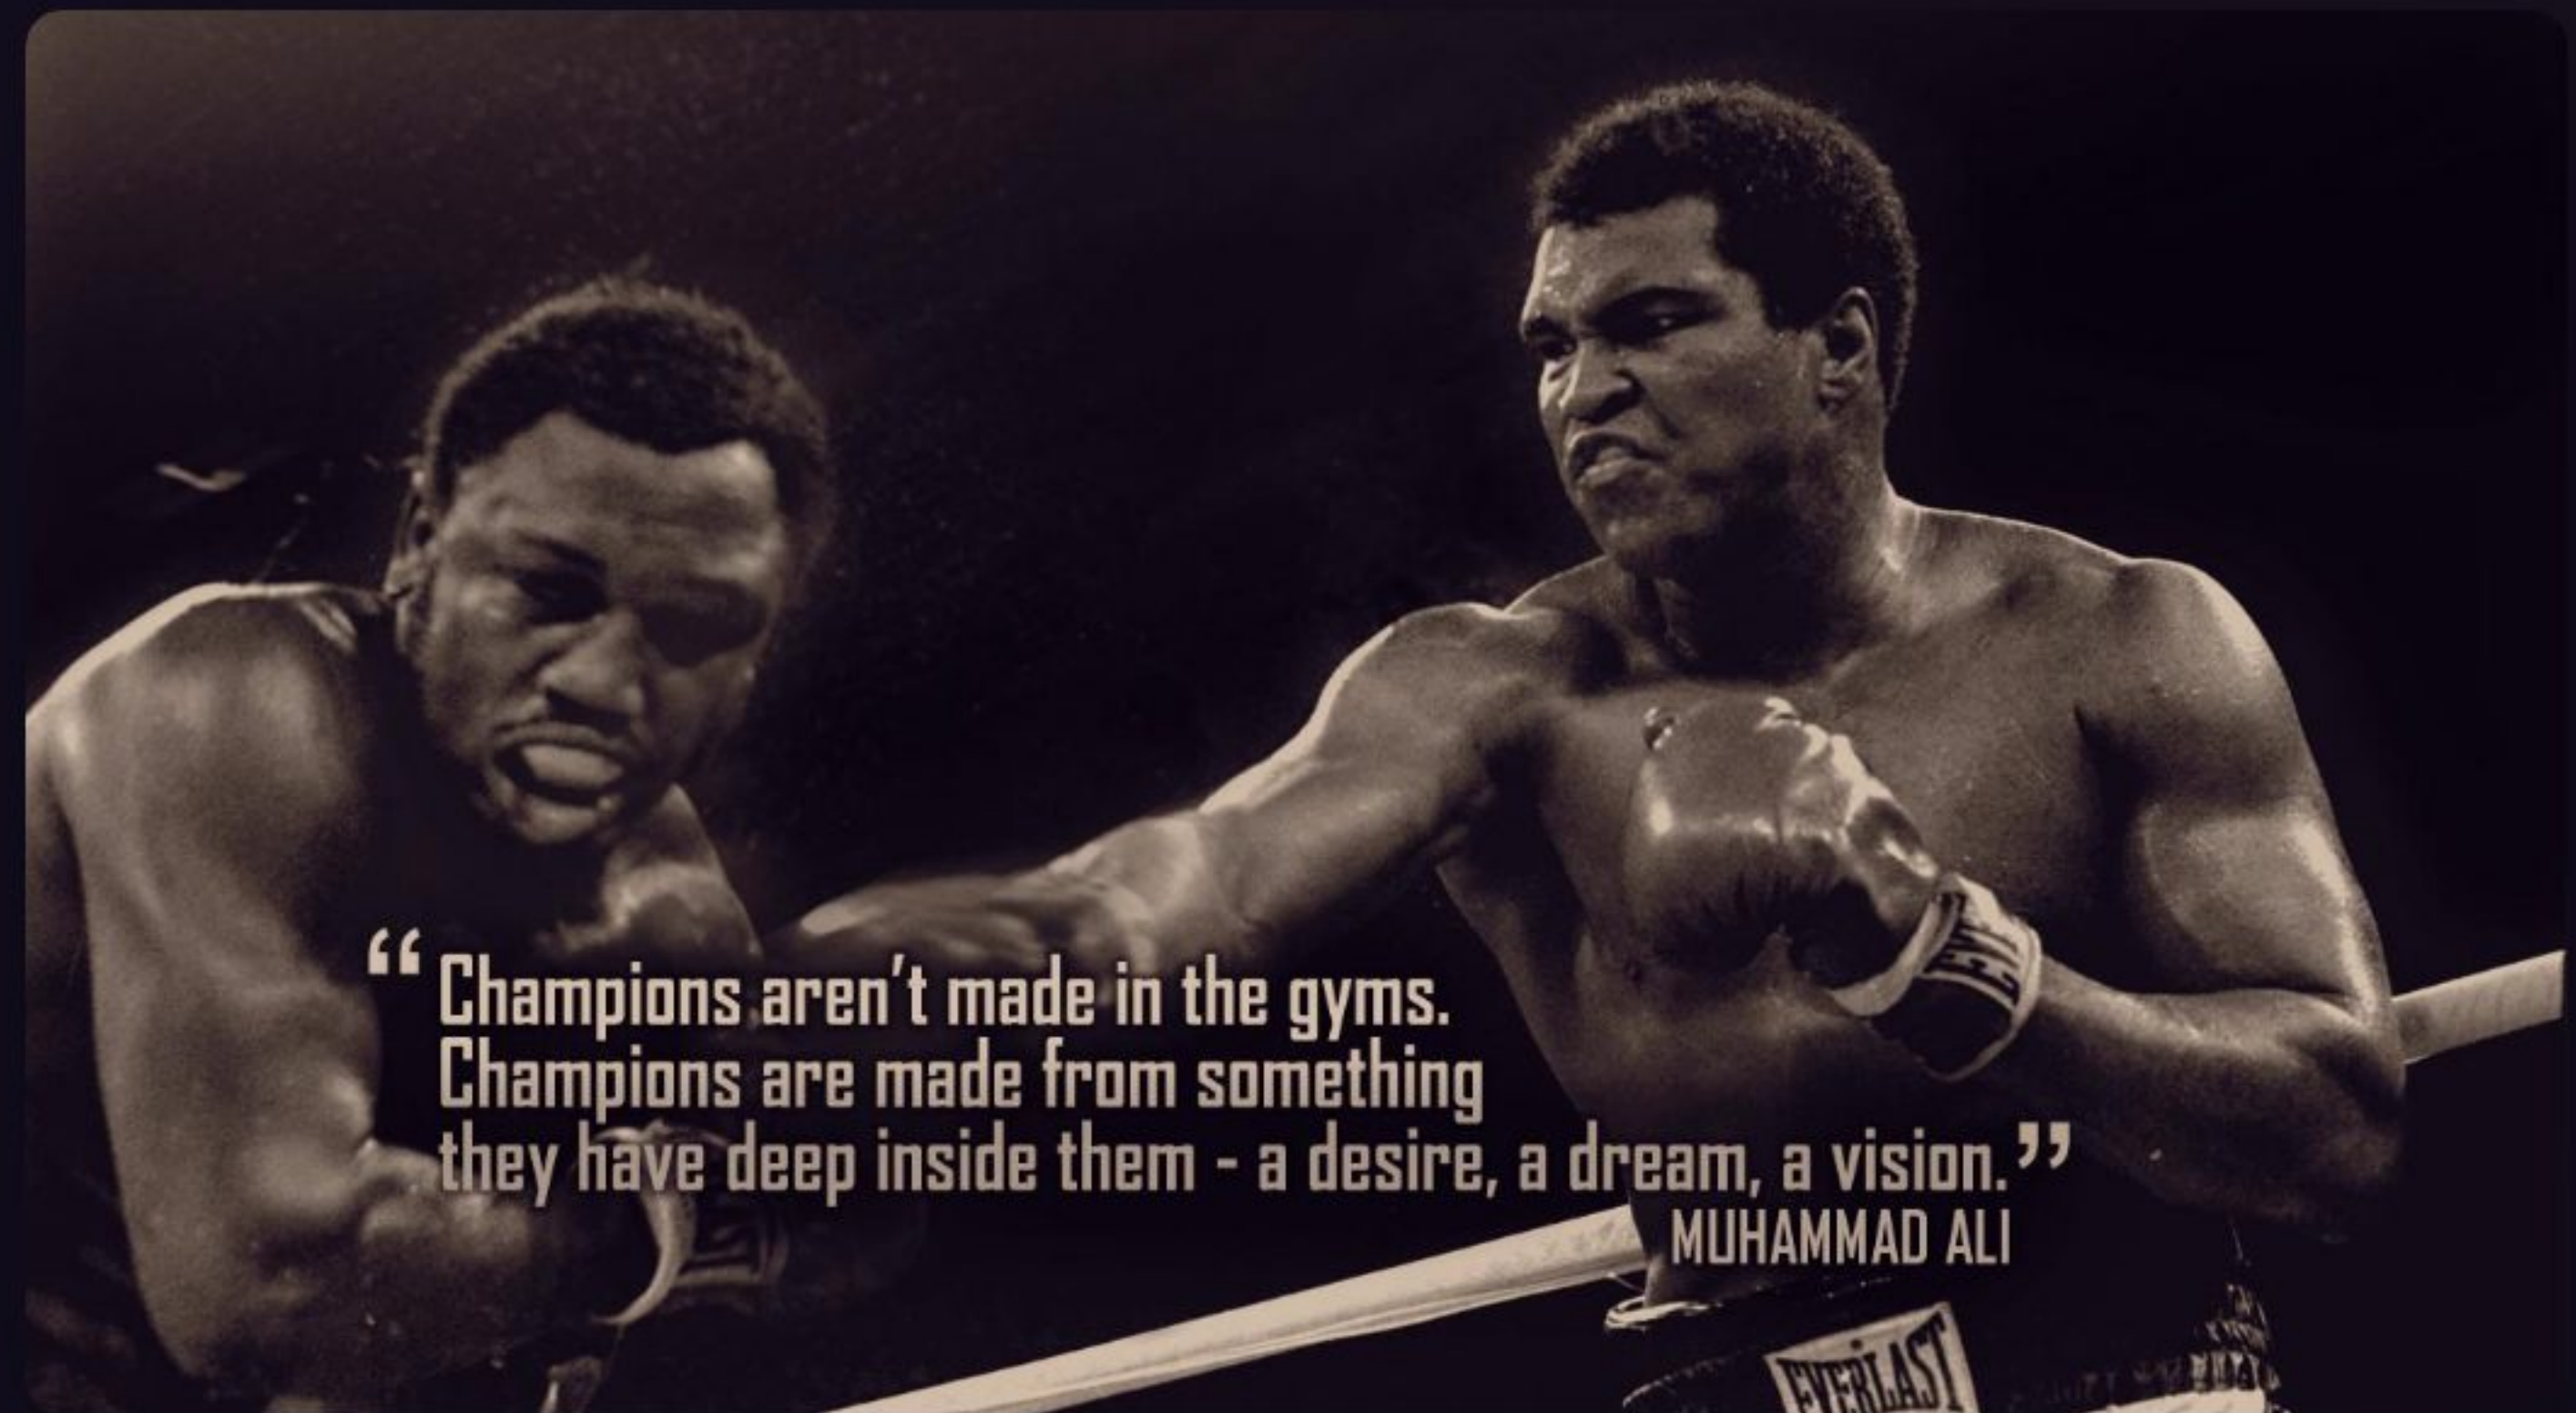

What is motivation?

"Motivation is the driving force within individuals that impels them to action" (Schiffman & Kanuk, 2004, p. 87).

What is motivation? cont.

"The energizing force that activates behavior and provides purpose and direction for that behavior" (Hawkins et al., 2004).

Sport Consumer Motives

What's your definition of sport consumer motives?

- Processes that direct or force consume sports.

Intrinsic vs. Extrinsic Motivation

RICHARD RYAN & EDWARD DECI

Intrinsic

Authentic (self-authored or endorsed)

vs.

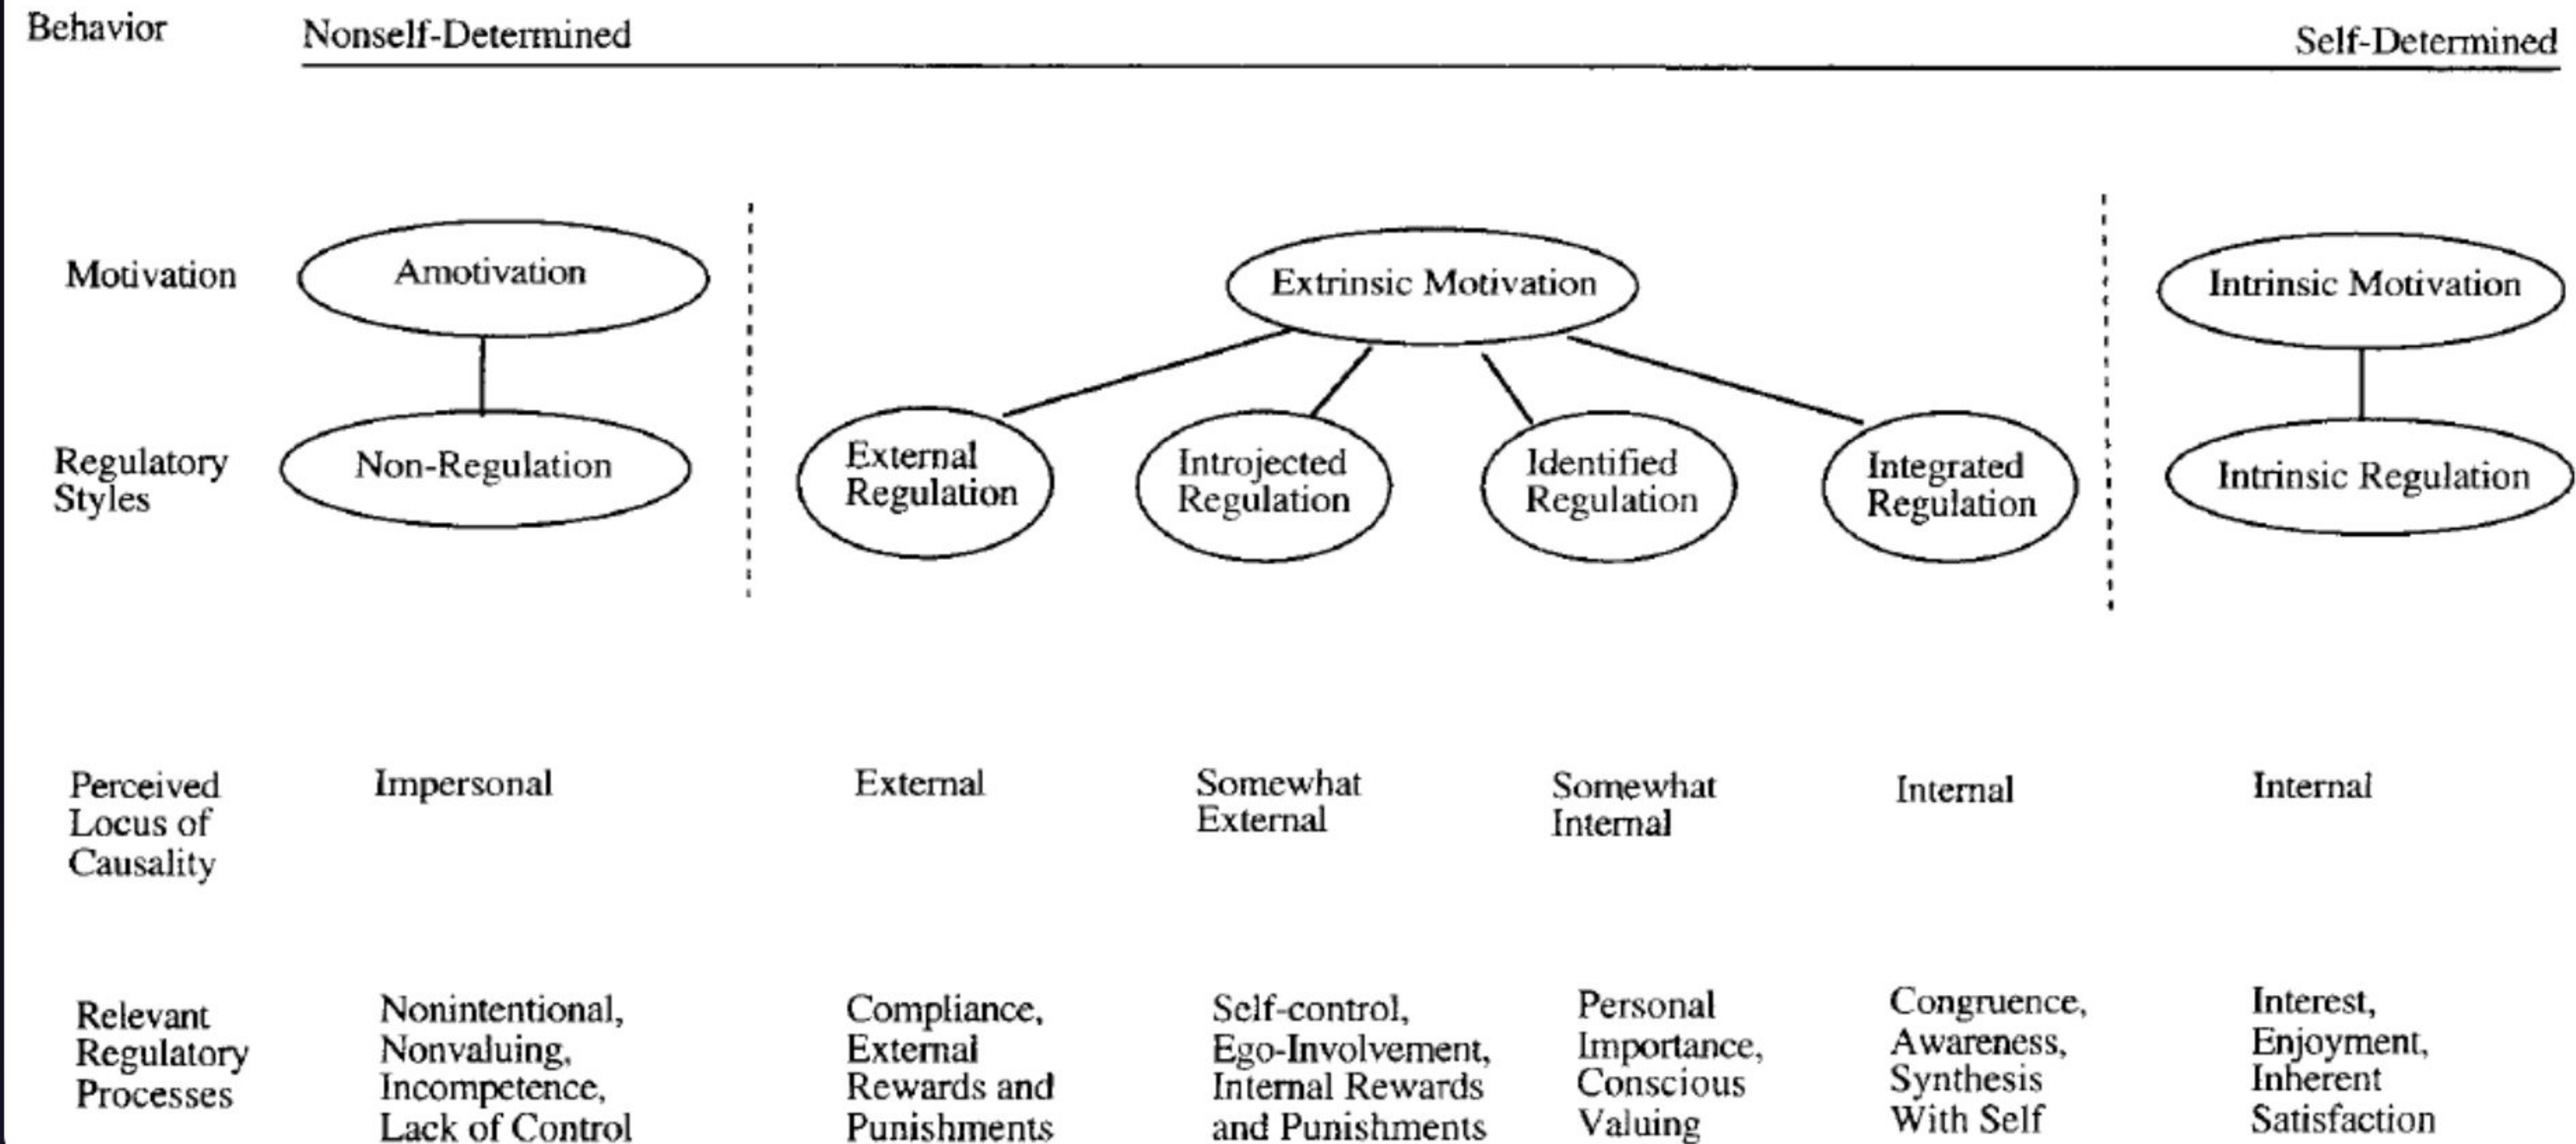

Extrinsic

Externally controlled for an action

Figure 1

The Self-Determination Continuum Showing Types of Motivation With Their Regulatory Styles, Loci of Causality, and Corresponding Processes

Intrinsic vs. Extrinsic Motivation cont.

Studying because you want to get a good grade.

I vs. E

Participating in a sport because you find the activity enjoyable.

I vs. E

Solving a word puzzle because you find the challenge fun and interesting.

I vs. E

Cleaning your room to avoid being reprimanded by your parents.

I vs. E

Participating in a sport in order to win awards.

I vs. E

Competing in a contest in order to win a scholarship.

I vs. E

Click each statement to reveal the answer · I = Intrinsic, E = Extrinsic

Sport Consumer Motivation

- Think about your previous attendance at the sporting events.....

Sport Consumer Motivation cont.

Can you distinguish your motives of sports consumption into two categories, intrinsic motivation and extrinsic motivation?

Kim, James, Kim (2013)

Please read this week's reading Kim, James, and Kim (2013) from p. 175 to p.176.

Hedonic Motives

Aes Aesthetics

Esc Escape

PS Physical Skill

SI Social Interaction

Dra Drama

PA Physical Attraction

Fam Family

Psychological Connection Motives

Ach Achievement

TE Team Effort

TA Team Affiliation

Peer and Family Pressure Motives

PP Peer Pressure

FP Family Pressure

Please assume that you are watching an NFL game

What would be your motivation(s) to watch the NFL game?

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=H_neSjf8QMA

Fighting in Hockey

- 5-minute Major Penalty for Fighting
- A player is automatically ejected and suspended if the player tries to leave the bench to join a fight ("Third Man In" rule, 1977)
- Automatic ejection for using weapons of any kind (i.e. skate or stick) as they can cause serious injury.
- Automatic ejection for a player who receives two instigator penalties or participates in three fights in a single game.

Fighting in Hockey cont.

Does fighting belong in the NHL?

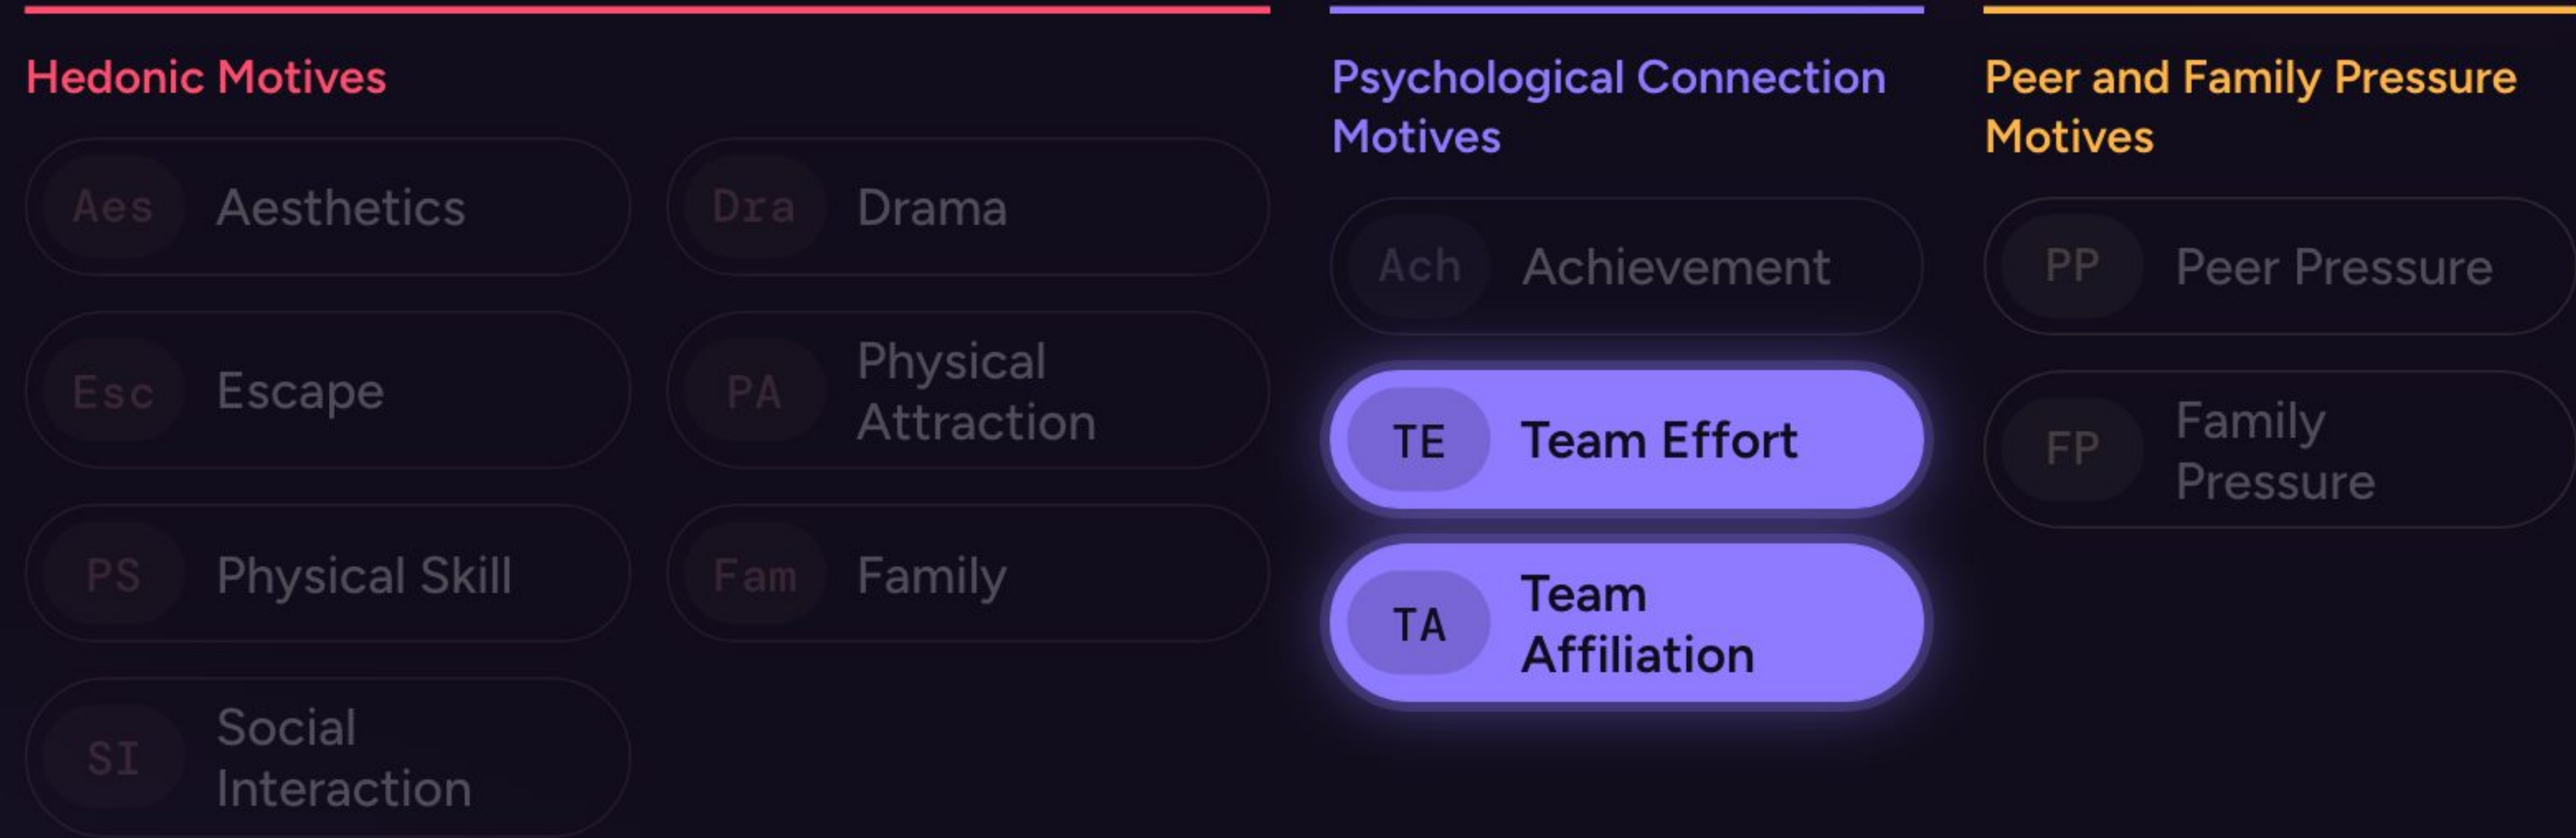

- Regardless of your position on fighting in the NHL, do you believe it will still be around in 10 years?

Why is Dr. Kim motivated to watch the FSU football game?

2013 Winning Season

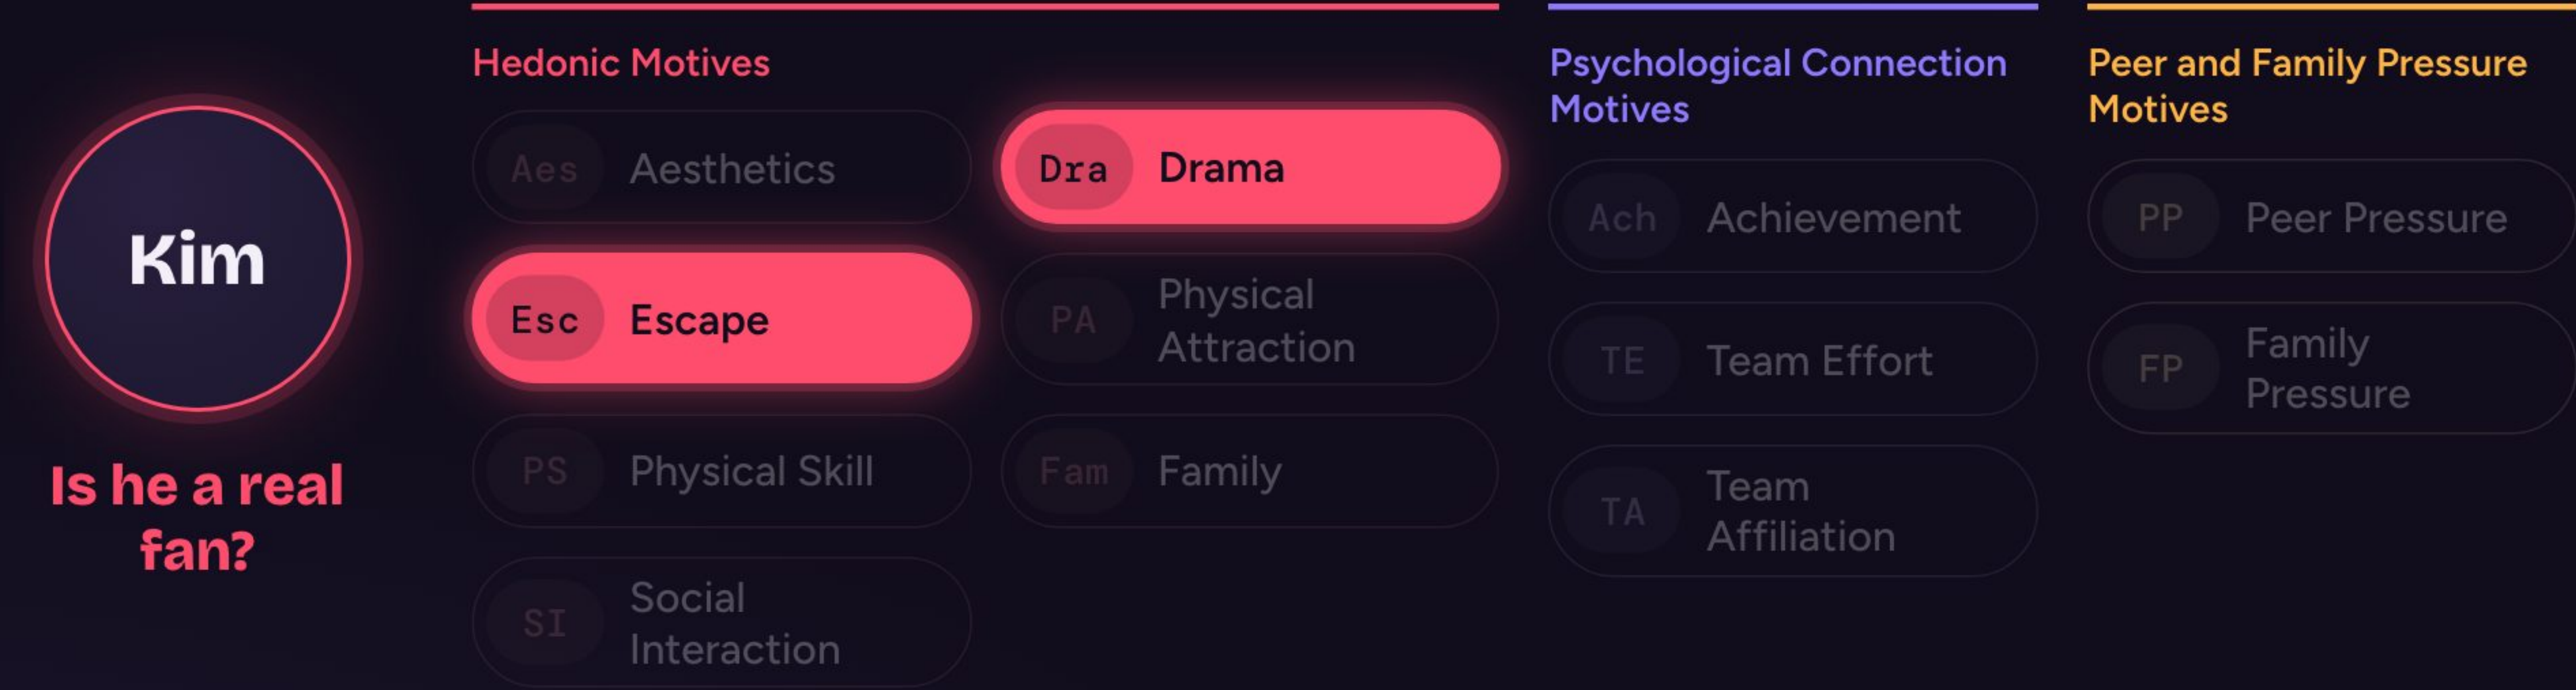

Kim

Team Effort
Team Affiliation

Why is Dr. Kim motivated to watch the FSU football game? cont.

After 2013 season

Think about...

Assume that you are an assistant AD at Arcadia University. You are requested to examine the different motives of spectators who follow sporting teams in D-I and D-III.

How to conduct this project?

Do survey using Sport Consumer Motivation Scale

See differences whether sports fans in D-1 and D-III have different motives to attend games.

Any systematic findings?

- Men's vs. Women's sports
- True fan vs. Spectator
- Violence (UFC, hockey)

Hedonic Motives

Aes Aesthetics

Dra Drama

Esc Escape

PA Physical Attraction

PS Physical Skill

Fam Family

SI Social Interaction

Psychological Connection Motives

Ach Achievement

TE Team Effort

TA Team Affiliation

Peer and Family Pressure Motives

PP Peer Pressure

FP Family Pressure

Why is knowing sport
consumer motives important?

Questions?

